DAIWA EXIST LT

The MQ BODY uses a large diameter engine plate to screw on to the body to seal the internals. The extra space created in the MONOCOQUE BODY allows DAIWA to install a larger diameter drive gear into a smaller size reel. This system instantly creates the more durable reel inside and out. Reduced weight, smooth rotation and high response allow the reel to spin freely. The introduction of MQ body prevents water intrusion within the body, whilst areas of rotation or areas frequently exposed to water have been equipped with MAGSEALED/MAGSEALED BALL BEARING technology.

V BEARINGS TELESCOPIC CARBON HAND RODS

These Telescopic Carbon Hand rods are a traditionally built rod with a very traditional purpose. Hand rods made famous in Oriental and European countries are the epitome of finesse float fishing. Similar to a Tenkara style in the sense there is no reel on the rod. Focused mainly on still waters and very low flows. These rods need an affiliated float kit to function properly and there are many accessories available. Match the float kit with length of rod desired and prepare to enjoy an entirely different approach to fishing from what we are used to seeing here in the North.

KNOT 2 KINKY
NITI

AQUATEKO KNOT 2 KINKY WIRE

Knot 2 Kinky wire is a super elastic alloy which can be stretched and bent at least ten times more than ordinary steel leaders without permanent deformation. The perfect formula of Nickel and Titanium alloys creates a super elastic property to this leader. This allows a fish to apply an enormous bite that will then stretch the Knot 2 Kinky wire and then recover, where steel would snap.

Created in 1993, the Bull Dawg is the original soft plastic jerk bait. One of the most versatile lures on the market, the Bull Dawg can be straight cranked, jerked, twitched, or even trolled. A favorite technique is to rip the bait with a rod sweep, then pause and repeat. The strike often comes on the pause. Do this technique fast in warm water and slow in cold water. ACME TACKLE LITTLE CLEO

The unique hump-backed shape of Little Cleo results in a seductive, wiggling action as the lure is drawn through the water. The illusion created is one of a fat baitfish, acting in an erratic, confused manner. This odd behavior triggers the predatory nature of the gamefish, who strike out of curiosity and anger, as well as hunger. This three-way appeal hooks them every time.

SEAQUALIZER REG 50/100/150

The Standard SeaQualizer is our original device. It has three depth settings (50-100-150) to choose from. This device is ideal for fishing in up to 300ft of water for most effective releases. As a rule of thumb fish should be released from between 1/3 to 1/2 the depth at which they are caught. So if you are fishing between 60-300 feet, this is the device for you.

SEAQUALIZER DEEP 100/200/300

The SeaQualizer release device was designed as a safer alternative to venting. Fish that are caught at depth need to be returned to between 1/3 or 1/2 the depth they were caught at. This minimally invasive device returns fish safely to either 100, 200, or 300ft without need to reach or disturb the ocean bottom.

G.LOOMIS NRX + LP FLY RODS

Picky and particular, feeding trout aren't often available to receive offerings sent in a straight-line path. Perfect, delicate drifts require slinging unconventional slack yielding casts, and drag inducing micro-currents, obstacles, and other naturally occurring variables can limit tactical opportunity. When success rests on a razor's edge, take control with balanced fishing tools built to boost effectiveness in ultra-technical scenarios. NRX+ LP is the ultimate tool for accurate and effective dry fly presentation. Tailored for supreme versatility over a wide range of casting techniques, actions are sweet, smooth, and stable, with plenty of "spank" when conditions call for an additional pinch of power.

LAMSON LIQUID S 3-PACK

More Liquid courage. When creating the first-generation Liquid, we focused purely on the virtues and advantages a pressure-cast process can offer. With the second-generation Liquid S we take these advantages to a higher level. Liquid S has larger diameters, larger arbors and increased strength-to-weight ratios that come from the unique pocket spar frame and spool design. The arbor shape has been redesigned for cleaner spooling, and the drag knob is now larger, and if we can say it, "gripier". Liquid S carries the Liquid name to a higher level.

ORVIS HYDROS REELS

The new Hydros fly-fishing reel is the result of our desire to make something great that much better. We removed unnecessary material to further reduce the weight while stiffening the narrow spool, which minimizes line stacking. We changed the drag knob to be more ergonomically accessible and comfortable to use.The sealed drag is refined to protect the clutch bearing in the drag mechanism. We radiused the reel foot as on the Mirage for kink-free leader protection. The sealed drag with stacked carbon and stainless steel disc washers is one of the strongest in the industry, with zero start-up inertia. Matte type II anodized finish, standard large arbor size which balances better with lighter-weight fly rod, and offers excellent retrieval rates and less line coiling than standard arbor reels.

RIO PREMIER BANK ROBBER

The ultimate Fly Line for presenting terrestrials and stoneflies close to bankside cover. Whether fishing stoneflies, hoppers, beetles, or cicadas, the most effective presentation is often the same–flies should be dead drifting and tickling the bank. The RIO Bank Robber was designed specifically for this style of fishing. Its fine front taper enables precise, accurate casts while its rear-loaded head easily carries the biggest and bushiest salmonfly pattern. The long back taper makes it easy to mend and extend a drag free drift while a unique, bright green section marks the ideal lengths for loading the rod and picking up for another cast. Finally, the Bank Robber is made with a slightly harder SlickCast coating than a standard trout line, keeping it slick and easy to shoot on even the muggiest summer hopper days. It has never been easier to get your fly up against that cut bank and keep it there, cast after cast.

In addition, the line features MaxFloat Tip Technology, RIO's proprietary tip coating formula that floats more than twice as high as regular line tips, without any increase in diameter.

A Tribute to the Human Hand

Introducing the completely redesigned Fenwick family of rods.

The human hand is a miraculous thing. It sets a high bar for a fishing rod to live up to.

On the water, an angler is partially blind. But with a sensitive rod in an experienced angler’s hands, the hands give the angler a picture to work with. Sensing the variations of vibration. The stumps and rocks. Brush and weeds. Channels and current. The subtlest of bites. And other nuances of a world below.

The human hand is the best piece of fishing gear ever made.

While Fenwick has always been known for sensitive rods, we wanted to see how far sensitivity could be taken. And to provide your hand with a worthier partner.

We began by redesigning the entire Fenwick family of rods from scratch. Every part of the rod was rethought to leverage and maximize the hand’s natural sensitivity.

To reinvent the grip, we studied how hundreds of different anglers hold a fishing rod. We worked with experts in surgical-tool ergonomics to develop a bulb profile with the optimum diameter to fill the hand more comfortably. Allowing you to fish for long days with greater confidence and control.

A full blank side exposure in the grip gives your hand direct flesh-to-blank contact so your hand receives all the subtle and nuanced information.

In fishing, sensitivity is personal. Based on what species you fish and how. From the blank to the choice of materials that surround it, we worked to dial in the exact right sensitivity and feel for every species, application and technique. From jerk bait to crank bait, drop shotting and bottom bouncing, flipping to pitching and punching.

A rod blank provides the foundation for performance and sensitivity. Each blank was crafted with your hand in mind to be species and technique-specific—providing the perfect action, sturdiness, sensitivity and crisp feel for every application.

While many claim to have a “blank-through design,” it’s seldom the case. Our blanks run tip to butt without breaking the line of communication. Though it’s harder to build, the results are worth it. The rod feels more alive in your hands as it communicates every subtle vibration.

Materials from different corks to EVA foam were chosen for their impact on sensitivity and feel.

The result is an all-new family of 264 Fenwick rods across four performance series—Eagle, HMG, Elite and World Class. Every species and technique is represented with further variations and refinements in each of the higher series.

Each rod’s design and ergonomics allow the tool to be a natural extension of the angler’s hand.

Because the human hand is a miraculous thing. It sets a high bar for a fishing rod to live up to.
